LBJ Scores Rising Rate of Crimes

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson sends a message to Congress today reinforcing his stand that "a Great Society cannot be marked by rising crime rates."

The President let Congress know in both his State of the Union and budget messages in January that it could expect a message dealing with crime. He mentioned upcoming requests for legislation to combat crime but spelled out no details.

In advance of today's message there was no sign that any spectacular legislative measures would be included.

For one thing, the President has a National Crime Commission at work. He expects it to come up with recommendations, but its report isn't due until next January.

There were expectations that Johnson would have something to say about modernizing and strengthening local police forces and perhaps announce some federal grants to help the police departments conduct research and develop modern law enforcement methods under a Law Enforcement Assistance Act passed last year.

That law contemplates improved training of enforcement personnel, increased research, spreading around information on enforcement and correctional techniques, and strengthening the administration of justice.

Negroes Are Dispersed by Tear Gas

HERTFORD, N.C. (AP) — Authorities used tear gas and fire hoses to disperse about 200 Negro demonstrators Wednesday night.

Police said 30 persons were arrested for parading without a permit and released on $50 bond each. No injuries were reported.

Three highway patrolmen were struck by flying objects, but none required treatment.

Hertford is an agricultural community of about 2,500 on the Perquimans River near the coast. It is 17 miles southwest of Elizabeth City. The area has a large Negro population.

The violence broke out as police loaded demonstrators on a prison department bus.

The march was called by civil rights leader Golden Frinks of Edenton to protest "the power structure's refusal to conduct good faith negotiations." Frinks was one of those arrested.

The Negroes are demanding a 14-point program, including the hiring of Negro policemen, deputy sheriffs and store clerks.

The Rev. F. L. Andrews, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Edenton, also arrested, said Negroes are "dissatisfied with

Drug Head Is a Man of Action

By W. JOYNES MACFARLAN
WASHINGTON (AP) — The new commissioner of food and drugs is a man of action — "I like to see things get done" — and he is showing it in trying to clean up during his first 90 days in office all pending drug cases that are ready for decision.

Dr. James L. Goddard took his oath as commissioner Jan. 18.

With a smile, he says he inherited a lot of long-standing drug cases which have been referred to as "the dead cats in the closet."

In a drive that already has led to many people in the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare referring to him as "Go-Go Goddard," he has announced a number of major clean-up decisions in less than two months.

So far, these are topped by the sweeping action of Tuesday for ultimate removal from the market of all nonprescription antibiotic lozenges and some other antibiotic preparations which may be purchased without prescription and bear claims they are effective against sore throat.

A spokesman said the four orders added up to one of the most sweeping drug removals the agency ever has ordered.

Asked about his philosophy in reaching decisions with such widespread impact, Goddard said in an interview:

"Basically I try to take the facts available and make decision based on that factual data."

"This agency some two years ago offered the manufacturers of these antibiotic products an opportunity to come forward within 90 days with presentations as to the efficacy — the effectiveness of these drugs."

"There were no such submissions."

"I do feel that an undue length of time had passed, and that there can be no claim of precipitate action."

"I am not saying that the compounds can't be marketed without the antibiotic. I feel sure some will be. Many were made before antibiotics were available and they were useful and I feel sure some will again be marketed with the antibiotic removed."

He said that when he became commissioner he knew that the antibiotic proceeding had been pending a long time and asked for data on it. He is a physician, the first to head FDA in recent years, and is a career commissioned officer in the Public Health Service.

Tests Are Under Study on Oral Pills

By MARTHA COLE
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Food and Drug Administration said today it is reviewing its policies on starting clinical testing in studies of oral contraceptive drugs.

Dr. Joseph F. Sadusk Jr., medical director of the FDA, said in testimony prepared for a House Government Operations subcommittee that this was being done in view of basic experimental findings with MK065, a birth control drug.

Sponsors of the drug withdrew it from clinical studies last Jan. 18.

Sadusk said the long period of clinical use of other drugs similar to MK065 "would lend assurance" as to these products; nevertheless, the pharmacological data on oral contraceptives is being thoroughly reviewed to confirm this thought.

The subcommittee is studying the work of the FDA in protecting the American public.

Can't Meet School Nurse Demands

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Education Department says that federal emphasis on the importance of school children's health has created a demand for school nurses which can't be met.

The department said 83 requests for school nurses have been made by larger school districts which are applying for funds under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Only a handful of large districts have had school nurses, the department said.

Blackmailer For A Mother?

Dear Helen: What do you do with a mother who blackmails you? Mine does. It all started when I got a job after school, babysitting. Everything I do or don't do she holds this over me saying she'll make me quit my job. She knows I need the money since I buy all my own clothes and school supplies, etc. I do my share of the work at home, sometimes more than my share. Any suggestions? — Soon Broke

Dear Soon broke: I'm sure you and your mother realize she's talking up a storm about something you could settle in a breeze if you'd discuss instead of argue.

She may think you have taken on too much, but, to you, her worry sounds like "blackmail." You resent it because she "nag" and doesn't brag, and I can't blame you here: a girl who earns her own clothes and spending money deserves a whale of a lot of praise!

Why don't you two sit down and work out your hours for sitting, study, chores — and fun. Show your mother that you can manage this job without really hurting and I think she'll turn off the storm. — H.

Dear Helen: I am a sophomore in high school and am taking Earth Science. In our book are a couple of chapters on the scientific creation of the world. My religion opposes this, saying only the Lord could create. I believe this and when we had a test on it and there was a question on our creation, I put down "The Biblical Story." For that I got a failing mark and a demerit for insubordination.

I think this is unfair, but I did not tell my parents because I don't want to see the teacher in trouble. There must be others with this problem. What did they do? — Fundamentalist

Dear Fun: You might have said, "According to the text book, the theory of evolution is..." This way you could keep your beliefs intact, while still reporting what scientists have written. — H.

Easy WAY Out?

Dear Helen: You tell N. B. P. indirectly not to "take the easy way out" of the dilemma of her illegitimate baby my marrying either of the boys — (the reluctant father, or the noble friend she doesn't love). Then you advise her to take a still easier way out by abandoning her child to strangers!

If she gives it up, it may be knocked around or mistreated. It's at least half her fault that the baby is coming into the world and she is responsible for bringing it up. She would do better to marry one of the two boys, try honestly and conscientiously to make the marriage a success and, if it doesn't work get a divorce. At least the child would have a name and she would have the child. Perhaps meeting her obligation would make her more mature. Shirking it certainly won't — A. R. A.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Just when you think that the entertainment industry has developed every possible medium, along comes a new one.

This time it's stereo music in your car. No commercials, no screaming disc jockeys. Just stereophonic music to help you while away the miles on the highway.

The tape cartridge market is the talk of the recording business, and both record companies and car dealers are anxiously eyeing the millions that might be reaped from the new field.

Car stereo seems so simple that it is surprising that someone didn't develop it sooner. Speakers are spotted in various locations in the car. A player is located under the dashboard. All the driver has to do is turn on the machine and insert a plastic cartridge containing a continuous loop of tape. Instant stereo.

According to Billboard, which devoted a full issue to tape-cartridge recently, the new business started with the invention of George Eastman, a Los Angeles engineer. He began tinkering with a continuous-play tape in 1953 and four years later had developed a cartridge that contained 1,200 feet, or an hour of music.

Four years ago, Earl Munz, the one time Madman Muntz of used-car selling, started merchandising car installations and tape cartridges. The big push for the industry came last year when Ford offered as an optional feature in its 1966 cars a car stereo system developed jointly by RCA and Lear Jet Corp.

What does car stereo cost?

If you were buying a new Thunderbird, you could get a player for $127.56. Installations can be made in your present car from $79.95 up. Cartridges cost from $2.95 for the cheaper pops to $6.98 for longhair music. Most home tape recorders don't handle cartridges.

Couple Found Dead in Home

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Pulaski County Sheriff's Office found Mr. and Mrs. William M. Brickhouse, both 47, dead Wednesday after breaking into the couple's home near here. Sheriff Frank Mackey said an attorney received a letter from Brickhouse which said Brickhouse was going to kill his wife and then himself, because both were in ill health.

Authorities said Mrs. Brickhouse had suffocated and Brickhouse died of a bullet wound.

Simple Way Not Expert

By JACOBY & SON

Correct play does not always produce the maximum number of tricks. All it can do is to produce the best possible total result over a long period of time. In other words, the expert plays by the year.

South's four-spade call was not one of those play-by-the-year bids. Most players would have bid either four diamonds or three no-trump. A four-diamond bid would have led to an easy five diamonds, a three no-trump call to an even easier no-trump contract.

Once South bid four spades North was interested in a grand slam. Hence, his bids of five clubs and five hearts to show those two aces but South realized that he had reached his limit when he bid four spades.

West might have opened a heart in which case South would have had to go down one trick but West made the apparently safe lead of the king of spades and South had a good play for his contract. He needed to set up a third club trick for a discard of a heart.

The simple way to go about that would have been to play king-ace and a third club. This would win against a 3-3 club break. It would also win if the play of the king dropped an honor from either hand. The simple way is not the best or expert way here. The expert way is to lead the three of clubs from dummy after drawing trumps and finesse the nine spot. If that wins there is no further problem. If it loses, you go back to dummy and finesse the clubs once more. This play wins as long as West does not hold both club honors. If he does, the expert comes out looking like a dunce.

What do you do?
A—Bid three no-trump. This is a very tough problem. Two no-trump and three and four diamonds are all possible calls but we favor the try for a no-trump game. Your diamonds should be good for four or five tricks.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding two diamonds, your partner passes your one no-trump bid. East responds with two clubs. What do you do now?

Johnson Has More Support From Critics

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate's senior Republican said today President Johnson's efforts for Peace in the Viet Nam war have led critical senators to give him "more support than we did some time ago."

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said in an interview he wanted to give Johnson credit for his repeated attempts to avoid any reckless expansion of the war. Aiken was among those who joined with Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield last January in warning of the dangers of a massive Southeast Asian war.

"I think we are giving the President more support than we did some time ago," he said. "He seems to be keeping our military efforts within bounds." A similar but more guarded view was voiced by another critic of Johnson's Viet Nam policies, Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn. In a separate interview, Gore said he is giving "uneasy" support to the President's present course.

"I hope and believe that the President's course is now one of prudence and caution," Gore said. "It keeps one nervous, however, to realize that every act of escalation has been taken only after bland assurances have been given that we seek no wider war."

Johnson got some support Tuesday — plus a word of caution — from an expert on China, A. Doak Barnett, acting director of Columbia University's East Asian Institute.

Barnett told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that the United States should continue to fight Communist subversion and insurrection and stand on its pledge to defend Formosa, capital of the Nationalist Chinese government.

In Viet Nam, Barnett advocated "continued military and political action."

On the other hand, Barnett said, "we not only should not escalate" in Viet Nam, "but should de-escalate."

"It would be a dangerous error to conclude that Communist China would not risk major war if it genuinely felt that its vital interests were threatened," he told the committee which opened its hearings on Red China Tuesday.

Barnett suggested that the United States should acknowledge the Communist regime as the government of mainland China and support Red China's admission to the United Nations, along with Nationalist China. The United States also should exchange diplomatic representatives with Red China, he said.

Underdogs Get Chance in Tournaments

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Virginia Tech and Western Kentucky, underdogs in college basketball's major postseason tournaments, the NIT and the NCAA, got pats on the back today.

Virginia Tech opposes the favored Temple Owls in the opening game of the NIT at New York's Madison Square Garden tonight. Western Kentucky is pitted against Michigan in the first round of the NCAA Midwest regional at Iowa City, Iowa Friday night.

"We don't think anything Temple will do will surprise us," said Howie Shannon, Virginia Tech coach. The Gobblers haven't played since Feb. 19 when they ended their regular season at 19-4, but Shannon said his boys have "looked awfully sharp in practice."

"We seem more eager now than we have all season," Shannon concluded in giving his team a vote of confidence against the Owls, 20-8.

The Western Kentucky Hilltoppers, 24-2, got their pat on the back from George Ireland, coach of the Chicago Loyola Ramblers, who were upset by the Hilltoppers last Monday.

"If they have a good night they'll beat Michigan," Ireland said. "And, if they beat Kentucky."

He referred to the nationally top-ranked Kentucky Wildcats, who play Dayton in Friday's first game at Iowa City.

NCAA regional doubleheaders also will be held Friday at Raleigh, N.C., Lubbock, Tex., and Los Angeles.

De Paul and NYU clash in tonight's second game of the NIT doubleheader in New York.

The small - college tournaments, the NCAA and NAIA, got down to the semifinals and quarter-finals, respectively.

In the round of four of the NCAA small-college at Evansville, Ind., tonight Southern Illinois meets North Dakota and Akron takes on Kentucky Wesleyan. Southern Illinois beat Fresno State 93-70, Akron downed Long Island 74-68, North Dakota edged Abilene Christian 63-62 and Kentucky Wesleyan overcame Central Connecticut 84-78 Wednesday night.

In the NAIA quarter-finals at Kansas City tonight, Grambling meets Rockhurst, Oklahoma Baptist opposes Carson Newman, Norfolk State is pitted against Central State of Ohio and Georgia Southern goes against Illinois Wesleyan.

Muleriders Are Ousted

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Fourth-seeded Georgia Southern ended Southern State College's hopes of a second upset in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics basketball tournament by beating the Muleriders 80-62 here Wednesday.

The Georgians led from the start, although it was only 40-39 at halftime.

Charles Jones led the Arkansas entry with 19 points.

Nightly Rub Is Beneficial

Heels, elbows and knees often suffer more from wintry hazards than more protected areas. Each night treat them to a soothing rub with a petroleum jelly to keep them smooth.

Smackover and Warren Still in Tournament

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Paragould became the first team to reach the semifinals of the Class AA state high school basketball tournament by beating Little Rock Catholic 57-49 Wednesday night.

In first-round games Wednesday, up-rated Harrison picked up its 33rd straight victory by a 71-53 margin over Russellville, and Smackover beat Stuttgart 68-44.

Three more teams will advance to semifinals today, after matches between Mountain Home and Leachville, Searcy and Warren and Smackover and Harrison.

Paragould's sparkplug was State Brumett, who poured in 16 of his 22 points in the second half. The Bulldogs went ahead for good after taking a 9-8 lead, and by halftime they had the Rockets 24-19.

Paragould led by as many as 14 points in the second half, before Catholic managed to close the gap somewhat. Brumett led the Bulldogs' scoring, and Donnie Powers and Gene Hempel topped Catholic with 15 points each.

Harrison, No. 1 team in the Associated Press high school basketball poll, had a 36-25 halftime lead and put the game away in the third period by hitting nine of 11 field goal attempts.

Lendel Thomas paced the Gobblers with 24 points and Larry Terry added 23. Jim Marsh led the Cyclone with 18 points.

Smackover's Kenny McGaughey and Mike Holloway combined for 50 points in the victory over Stuttgart.

McGaughey scored 30 points, including 14 free throws in 18 attempts and Holloway, a sophomore, had 20 points. Wayne Crutcher scored 14 points for the Ricebirds.

Smackover led from the first and had a 32-22 halftime advantage.

Lakers Win Title, 76ers Lead by One

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Los Angeles Lakers have won their second straight Western Division championship in the National Basketball Association and their fourth in five years.

Only a second-place finish to San Francisco in 1964 and a similar runner-up position to St. Louis in 1960 has prevented a streak of six straight Western titles for the Lakers.

The Lakers wrapped up 1966 Western Division laurels by edging the Cincinnati Royals 119-116 Wednesday night in a nip - and - tuck game at Indianapolis. Four free throws, two each by Elgin Baylor and LeRoy Ellis, sewed it up for the Lakers after the Royals had pulled to within 115-114 with 90 seconds left.

The victory gave the Lakers a won-lost record of 42-33. Thus they can lose all five of their remaining games and still finish ahead of the runner-up Baltimore Bullets.

The Bullets got whipped by San Francisco at Seattle 125-115 and now have lost seven more games than the Lakers.

Meantime, the Philadelphia 76ers increased their Eastern Division lead over the champion Boston Celtics to one full game with a 123-115 home triumph over the St. Louis Hawks. Both the 76ers and Celtics have five games left.

THE DOCTOR SAYS Surgery Is the Answer For Intestinal Angina

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Very little was heard about intestinal angina until about seven years ago. Like angina pectoris this is a painful condition caused by obstruction of an artery, in this case an artery supplying the intestines. The obstruction may be caused by a clot formation or by hardening of the artery and the deposit of fat and calcium in the arterial wall.

A person with this disease usually complains of abdominal pain and tenderness that comes on a few minutes after eating. The larger the meal, the more severe the pain. Because the victim avoids eating, there is a progressive loss of weight. Bloating, nausea and constipation may also be present.

The diagnosis is made by introducing a radiopaque dye into the arterial system and getting X-ray pictures. Since this is not a simple procedure it is reserved for selected cases based on a careful evaluation of symptoms, physical examination and laboratory findings.

Once the disease is recognized a surgeon can use a plastic arterial graft to bypass the obstruction and reestablish circulation in the involved segment of the intestines. The reported results have been excellent. This marks another advance in blood vessel surgery.

Q—Can anything be done for an aneurysm in the abdomen?

A—An aneurysm or dilation of the wall of an artery occurs when the wall has been weakened by disease. This may occur anywhere in the body but is common in the abdominal aorta, especially if severe hardening of the arteries is present. All aneurysms are serious because of the threat of rupture. Modern surgery has, however, saved many victims by replacing or bypassing the diseased artery with a plastic graft. This operation requires a team of highly specialized surgeons.

Q—For the past 10 months I have been bothered with gagging when I get up in the morning. What causes it and what can I do to get rid of it?

A—The chief cause of gagging in the morning is dryness in the mouth and throat. It is common in persons who breathe through their mouths. It may also be due to nasal polyps or a deformity of the nasal septum. Sleeping in a room where the air is very dry is a causative factor and so is chronic sinusitis with a postnasal drip.

Try keeping a glass of water by your bed and drinking a little before you get out of bed in the morning. Using a humidifier in your bedroom might help. Also you might have a nose and throat specialist examine you for a disease of the nose, throat or sinuses.

Wills Also Discussing More Money

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Maury Wills never has hit 60 homers, knocked in 170 runs or batted .393. Nevertheless, he's reached Babe Ruth's class.

General Manager Buzzie Bavasi of the Los Angeles Dodgers confirmed Wills' status Wednesday in discussing the salary the flashy shortstop will receive this season.

Asked how much he offered Wills, Bavasi replied: "I can't tell you, but it'll be as much as Babe Ruth ever got."

Ruth's top salary with the New York Yankees was said to be $80,000.

Wills, however, wasn't on hand to hear about his step up in class. He hadn't reported to the Dodgers' spring training camp at Vero Beach, Fla., following his return earlier this week from Japan where he toured with his night club act.

In Los Angeles, however, Wills was quick to decline a step up to the class of teammates Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale, the dynamic duo who are holding out for matching of three-year, $500,000 contracts.

"I'm not worth that much," said the 33-year-old base-stealing wizard.

Wills didn't say how much he thought he is worth, but at one time he said he would seek $100,000.

The Dodger captain, incidentally, never has hit more than six homers in one season, knocked in more than 48 runs and batted higher than .302. He has, however, stolen 104 bases in one season.

Ruth never stole more than 17.

Wills, of course, wasn't around as the Dodgers continued their warmups for their exhibition season, which starts Saturday. The spring's first exhibition contests were scheduled for today.

In intra-squad games Wednesday, Norm Cash lashed a home run and a single for Detroit, driving in four runs; John Lewis and Dick Stuart each rapped three hits for the New York Mets and Matty Alou collected three singles for Pittsburgh.

Boog Powell knocked in four runs with a homer, double and single for Baltimore while Bob Rodgers and Rick Reichardt each socked three-run homers for California, with Rodgers driving in a total of six runs.

Track Team Is 2nd to Liberty Eylau Thinclads

By LARRY DON WRIGHT
Hope Star Sports Writer
The Hope Bobcat track squad placed second a mere 1 and one-sixth points behind Liberty Eylau in the season peeling three way track meet at Ashdown Tuesday while the Bobkittens easily swept the Jr. High division.

Liberty Eylau totaled 56 and one-third points followed by Hope with 55 and one-sixth and Ashdown with 46.

Johnny Lowe broke the unofficial Hope High School record for the mile run by placing first with a time of 5:09.5.

The Bobcat thinclads took first in six events.

Senior Bobby Samuels took first places in three events by himself. He won the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash, and the quarter mile run, as well as helping Hope win the 440 relay. In all Samuels accounted for 21 of the Cats points.

The other event in which Hope set the pace was the 880 run. Sophomore Alan Phillips won this half mile chase in 2:13.

Scoring in the Jr. High division went as follows: Hope 72, Liberty Eylau 43, and Ashdown 11.

The HHS tracksters started their season off right and this first meet should b e some preview of what's to be expected out on Hope's new track field this spring.

Here is the way the scoring went according to first places.

Clay-Terrell Fight Called Off Again

By PHILIP WECHSLER
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (A) — A dramatic midnight announcement by Ernie Terrell in a police station has once again put the Terrell-Cassius Clay world heavyweight championship fight in the doubtful category. Will it or will it not be held in Toronto March 29?

"As of now the fight is off," Terrell said in rejecting the terms of the new contract sent him by the Maple Leaf Gardens in Toronto where the fight apparently had found a home. It had been turned down in New York, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Louisville, Montreal, the state of Vermont and Verdun, Quebec.

Terrell, the World Boxing Association champion, balked at the provisions in the contract

Call Powell Collect, Its Your Money

By JOHN W. BECKLER
WASHINGTON (AP) — In a few strides, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell moved from his lofty perch as a chairman questioning Cabinet officers about the antipoverty program to a shouting, face-to-face meeting with the poor.

They were waiting in a big room alongside the hearing room of Powell's House Education and Labor Committee. Powell, a New York Democrat, left John W. Gardner, secretary of health, education and welfare, in the witness seat to go talk to them.

They were from Bedford-Stuyvesant and Harlem, Negro areas in Brooklyn and Manhattan, and represented two or three groups which had applied for antipoverty funds. They had been at him earlier about money they wanted from the poverty program and he had promised to come back.

"I've got good news," he cried as he entered the room. "A member of the federal government has just gotten on a plane with a check for $200,000."

8 Million Families Equipped With Automatic Dishwashers

Are you a modern homemaker? Not if you're still washing dishes by hand. Eight million American women already have switched to doing dishes automatically. Engineering and design advances have made today's automatic dishwashers the most efficient time- and labor-saving kitchen appliance available. A housewife who still clings to the dreary three-times-a-day washing-dishes-by-hand routine is not only behind the times, she's also squandering hours that could be spent in more satisfying family pursuits.

Studies show that electric dishwashers free the average homemaker of about 90 minutes of messy cleanups daily — more if she has a large family or entertains a great deal.

Tableware that would ordinarily be stacked on the counters or sink, or washed after every meal, can be placed right in the dishwasher and washed all at once at the end of the day. New models handle large capacities, require no pre-rinsing of dishes and deliver tableware that's hygienically clean, bone-dry and ready to be stacked away on the shelves. There's no kitchen clutter and no extra dishcloths to add to washday chores.

Modern dishwashers are also easier than ever to operate and load, and are equipped with a host of automatic features.

Most models have pushbutton controls and a variety of cycles that can handle anything from fragile glassware to heavily-soiled cooking utensils. Big glide-out racks permit random loading, and you even load odd-sized platters and large pans with ease. Automatic dispensers release detergents and rinsing agents during the proper washing cycle. Many models have hot water boosters to assure the correct water temperature to provide sanitization and effective washing action.

Modern automatic dishwashers, like the built-in model at left, feature slide-out racks, random loading and large capacities to permit loading of dishes, glassware and even odd-sized pans and bowls with ease. The portable dishwasher, right, has a wood cutting board on top that provides much-wanted extra work area in the kitchen.

There are several types of dishwashers from which to choose depending on the size and style of your kitchen, your need for countertop space and your preference for top- or front-loading.

Free-standing models are separate cabinet units that can be permanently installed at the end of a counter or anywhere in the kitchen. These front-loaders are available in a variety of counter-tops including wood cutting blocks and laminated plastic to match kitchen counters.

Undercounter models, also known as built-ins, are front-loaders that are permanently installed under a counter.

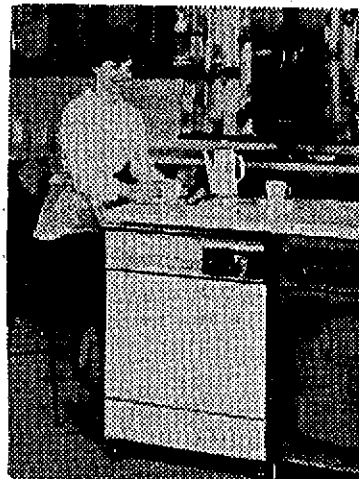

Portable dishwashers can be rolled to and from the sink or even to the table for easier loading. These are especially convenient for kitchens too small to accommodate a permanently-installed model. When not in use they can be rolled into a hallway or another room.

Front-loading convertible portables can be used as portables immediately and permanently installed as built-ins later. They are especially popular with families that plan a future move or kitchen remodeling but want the convenience of a dishwasher now. They provide an extra work surface, and many have optional wood cutting board tops.

Dishwasher-sink combinations are space saving and economical to install. Dishwasher, sink and disposer can be located in one functional compact unit. A variety of sink tops or countertops is available.

To suit the modern housewife's up-to-date kitchen decorating tastes, dishwashers are available in a variety of colors as well as white, and many have decorator fronts or optional trim and panels to match other kitchen appliances or cabinets.

A convertible dishwasher can be used as a portable now and as a built-in later. When in use, it is simply rolled to the sink and connected to the faucet. When not in use, it provides extra countertop area, as above.

Appliance Sales Soar in 5 Years

A 132 percent increase in the sale of automatic dishwashers over the past five years has been reported by the National Electrical Manufacturers Association. Sales in 1965 totaled 1,290,300 as compared to 555,000 in 1960.

Dishwasher No Longer Luxury Item

Like many other work-saving appliances that have changed the lives of American women, the automatic dishwasher is fast becoming a necessity in modern homes.

Refrigerator-freezers, automatic clothes washers and even vacuum cleaners were considered luxuries not too many years ago. Today, nearly every home has them. Automatic dishwashers appear to be following the same road.

Twenty years ago, annual dishwasher sales amounted to 120,000 units. Since then, annual sales have multiplied tenfold. Today, eight million women own automatic dishwashers, and sales for 1965 alone showed a 22.9 percent hike over the previous year.

This shift from luxury item to standard appliance is due largely to the dishwasher's value as a time-saver. The increasing demands on a homemaker's time make her anxious to forego whatever drudgery can be turned over to a machine. A dishwasher can save her more than an hour a day.

Advances in dishwasher design have also made them more convenient to use. Loading methods have been improved and simplified, and operation is now totally automatic.

And because they sanitize tableware, dishwashers substantially reduce potential hazards to family health.

Public Mainly Interested In Kitchens, Says Banker

"A new paint job, or a trip to the local department store is often all that's needed to redo the living room. But kitchen remodeling — well, that takes planning."

The man who says this ought to know. Robert W. Stober is assistant vice president of the Dime Savings Bank of Brooklyn, which for the past 18 years has housed a unique home and remodeling display. Every month, about 5,000 people — many of them out-of-staters — visit the bank's home buyers' exhibition to see what's new in home design, building products and remodeling. The prime interest of men and women alike seems to be the kitchen displays.

"Built-in kitchen appliances are the going thing," says Mr. Stober, "both as new home features and in remodeling. It's what the public wants, so that's what builders are offering."

An indication of the consumers' demand for built-in kitchen convenience, he says, is the fact that a majority of builders displaying at the bank now offer built-in automatic dishwashers as standard kitchen equipment.

The bank's home buyers' consultant, Mrs. Letty Patti, agrees. A consistent question among women visitors to the exhibit is whether the homes include a dishwasher. "They've come to expect it in homes of all price levels," she says.

Of the exhibit's two types of visitors — young marrieds and families shopping for a second or third home — interest in dishwashers is somewhat higher among the second group. Mr. Stober thinks he knows why.

"It happened in my own family," he says. "Our old house didn't have a dishwasher, but our new house did. And, at first, my wife was not very enthusiastic about this added attraction. She had the idea that pre-rinsing was required and loading would take as much time and trouble as washing dishes by hand. Then after she'd used the new dishwasher for a while, she couldn't understand how she'd ever gotten along without one!"

He considers it a matter of awareness. Once homeowners learn that an appliance or a building product is worth having, they insist on having it in their new or updated homes.

War on Crime? What's Needed Is Less Law

Word from Washington is that President Johnson plans a federal campaign against crime. However, his solution for crime is that of a politician, and doesn't come to grips with the true problem.

The president asserts his basic policy is to leave law enforcement in the hands of local officials, but reinforce their efforts by spending federal funds to promote research and information on crime.

His spending program is believable. Most politicians are believable when they announce they are going to spend money they don't have.

But there is wide-spread disbelief of his disclaimer that the federal government has any intention of seizing control of the police from local authorities. The federal government has taken, or tried to take, about everything else — so why shouldn't the local police be next?

That's how many citizens feel, and their sentiment is echoed in Congress, where the last session gave his original anti-crime program the brushoff.

The big trouble America faces in its fight against criminals is the people's child-like belief that all you have to do to abolish something you don't like is pass a law. We are so smart — and lazy — that we now have a nation with more laws and less law-enforcement than any country on earth.

This is the penalty we pay for listening to the beaters of propaganda drums and turning a deaf ear to wise old Thomas Jefferson who helped start our government on the principle that the best-governed people are those who are least governed.

But no. We are smarter than Thomas Jefferson. We are quick to pass laws making every second citizen a potential criminal. Naturally the police become confused. If they arrest someone under a bad law they are fired; but if they don't make an arrest they are accused of taking a payoff.

In the confusion all law-enforcement breaks down — and the true criminal escapes. While do-gooders beat their gums about more and more laws yet to come.

Astronauts Plan More Rehearsals

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Gemini 8 astronauts planned another long series of flight rehearsals today as their Wednesday launching date drew closer.

Astronauts Neil A. Armstrong and David R. Scott and their backups will run through key phases of the countdown, launching and orbital flight. They also will practice emergency procedures in the Gemini 8 spacecraft atop a Titan 2 rocket.

The backup crew is Navy Lt. Cmdr. Charles Conrad Jr., and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Richard F. Gordon Jr.

This so-called simulated flight exercise was expected to last until late at night.

The launch teams Wednesday successfully completed a complex simultaneous countdown involving an Atlas-Agena rocket and the Titan 2-Gemini combination. Only two minor problems developed.

The Atlas-Agena is to be launched at 10 a.m. EST Tuesday to propel the Agena into orbit as a target for Gemini 8.

Armstrong, a civilian, and Scott an Air Force major, are to take off in pursuit at 11:41 a.m. and attempt to link up with the Agena.

On the second day of the planned three-day flight, Scott is to take a space walk of nearly 2½ hours.

Contract for Channel Work

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP) — The S. J. Cohen Co. of Blytheville, Ark., has been awarded a $336,820 contract for channel improvement work in the Tombigbee River Valley in Mississippi. It was announced Tuesday.

The Army Engineers' contract involves channel improvement for Twenty Mile Creek in Lee and Itawamba counties of Mississippi.

War Tax Bill Passes After $1 Billion Cut

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration sought today to persuade Senate-House conferees to drop two Senate amendments that took a $1-billion chunk out of a $6-billion tax bill designed to help finance the Viet Nam war.

Chances for dropping the two provisions appeared good as the conferees try to compromise Senate and House versions and meet President Johnson's March 15 deadline for final congressional action on the measure.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen told a reporter he had been advised the House conferees would stand firm against the two amendments.

One would provide Social Security coverage for 1.8 million persons over 70 not covered now. The other would confine the 10 per cent excise tax on phone calls to long distance calls while keeping it at 3 per cent for local residential calls.

Major provisions in the bill are reimposition of taxes on phone calls and car sales that were cut Jan. 1, a graduated withholding system for collection of personal income taxes and a speedup in payment of corporation taxes.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., predicted the Senate conferees would abandon the two amendments "before they get to the rotunda." The Senate conferees pass through the rotunda in the center of the Capitol on the way to meet the House group.

Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., charged that the President had sent up a "picaresque bill" not geared to meet the government's needs in the war crisis.

As the bill cleared the Senate Wednesday by a 79-9 vote, it would provide a net of less than $5 billion.

The Social Security amendment by Sen. Winston L. Prouty, R-Vt., adopted 45 to 40 Tuesday, would cost an estimated $750 million.

Boychoir Is Very Warmly Received

The world-famous Columbus Boychoir of Princeton, N. J., was warmly received by a near-capacity audience at the Hope High School auditorium on Wednesday night, March 9. The varied program, well-performed under the direction of Donald Bryant, ranged from the classical to the lighter notes of spiritual and folk songs.

A one-act Mozart opera was performed during the program with all parts taken by the boys in the choir. All donned powdered wigs and some wore hooped skirts in the roles of the girls.

Possibly the character who captured the audience most completely was that of Dr. Fels, a physician and pseudo-magician.

During the 90-minute performance by the 27 voice choir, the director, Donald Bryant, played three piano solos by Chopin. A violin accompaniment in one number and a guitar accompaniment in another by boys in the choir emphasized the varied musical training the students at the New Jersey school receive.

The Columbus Boychoir received a standing ovation on the completion of some selections. The performance in Hope was sponsored by the Friday Music Club and the Hope Community Theater, Inc. It was a outstanding musical treat all who heard it agreed.

Amsler Seeking Re-election

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Judge Guy Amsler, 71, of Little Rock, filed Wednesday as a candidate for re-election as circuit judge in Division 2 of the 8th District.

The Bookout, 32, of Jonesboro, filed as a Democratic candidate for state representative, Position 2, District 11.

The incumbent, Norman Wimpy, has already filed for re-election in the district, which is made up of Craighead and Greene counties.

Two-Car Collision Fatal to Girl

BENTON, Ark. (AP) — Connie Hardcastle, 16, of North Little Rock was killed Wednesday night in a two-car collision on U.S. 70 about six miles west of here.

State Troopers John Haynes and Arnold Byford said the victim was in a west-bound car driven by Jimmy Williams, 20, of North Little Rock. It collided with a car driven east by Jimmy S. Allen, 43, of Little Rock, they said.

Admitted to a Little Rock hospital were Williams, Sharon Brockington of near Cabot, Johnny Phillips of North Little Rock and Mrs. Jean Allen, Allen's wife. Allen was not hurt, they said.

Ultimatum to Sukarno to Oust Reds

By JOHN CANTWELL
SINGAPORE (AP) — The Indonesian army has given President Sukarno an ultimatum to get rid of his pro-Communist Foreign Minister Subandrio and has demanded an answer by Saturday, reliable sources in Singapore reported today.

Sukarno is expected to announce his decision at a meeting with the armed forces chiefs at his palace in Bogor, 40 miles outside Jakarta, the sources said.

The army chiefs who have demanded Subandrio's ouster are mostly supporters of former Defense Minister Gen. Abdul Kariis Nasution whom Sukarno fired last month.

Subandrio has been accused unofficially of having been behind last October's Communist coup attempt. His name was on a list of ministers published by the coup leaders but he has denied that he had anything to do with the coup.

The army crushed the coup and launched a violent anti-Communist campaign which caused Sukarno to fire Nasution. His ouster brought on demonstrations by anti-Communist students which have been mainly directed against Subandrio.

About 200 students rammed a truck through a wall around the Communist Chinese Embassy today, broke all its windows and burned its documents, the Singapore sources said.

Life Sentence Is Reduced

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The life sentence of Leroy McCrainey of Pine Bluff, sentenced in 1947 on a first-degree murder conviction, has been reduced to 30 years to make him eligible for parole, the governor's office said Wednesday.

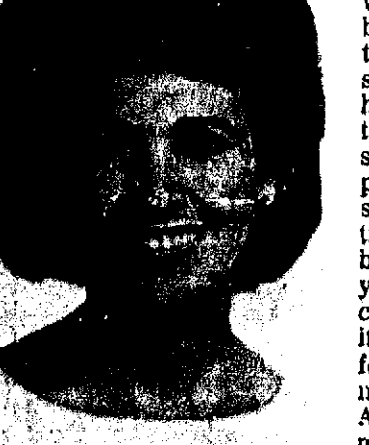

McCrainey, 62, was convicted of fatally shooting Mary Hampton in Pine Bluff. He first applied for commutation in 1950 and was refused.

Denman Is in Race for Prosecutor

In making my formal announcement for Prosecuting Attorney I first wish to thank the voters of Clark, Nevada, Hempstead and Miller Counties for their support in my race for this office four years ago. I cannot adequately tell you what your support and confidence meant to me.

I was born in Prescott, Arkansas, August 7, 1923, graduated from Prescott High School in 1941, graduated from the law school of the University of Arkansas, in February 1949. I volunteered and served in the Infantry in World War II, being awarded the Combat Infantry Badge, the European African Middle Eastern Theater Ribbon with two Bronze Battle Stars for the Rome-Arno and North Apennines Campaigns, and upon being wounded in action the Purple Heart, and was honorably discharged.

I was elected to two terms as Alderman of Prescott, served as director of the Prescott Chamber of Commerce and as Chairman of the Nevada County Development Council; served on the Court Reorganization Committee of the Arkansas Bar Association in 1950-51 and have been elected by my fellow attorneys as president of the Southwest Arkansas Bar Association, my term having ended the first of this year. I was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of Arkansas in 1949, and have continually practiced law in Prescott since that time; also I was admitted to practice in the Federal District Courts in Arkansas in 1949 and in our Federal Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit in 1958.

In 1953 I married the former Miss Rosanna Willem of Victoria, Texas, and we have a son, Bill, who will soon have his 10th birthday. I am a member of the Presbyterian Church. I am 42 years old and have seventeen years experience in the practice of law.

After a clean close campaign four years ago, I again ask the support of all people of Miller, Hempstead, Nevada and Clark Counties in my second attempt to become your prosecuting attorney.

One fact I would like to call to your attention is that when a lawyer asks you for your vote for this office he is asking to represent you in a very important capacity. You may have a crime committed against you during his term in office and he will be your representative. I believe you would want to give this matter the serious consideration you would give to the hiring of your own personal attorney. You would want to consider the attorney's training, experience, ability and desire to serve you. I submit that my training at the University is the best available; my seventeen years wide experience in many courts is ample; that my ability has been recognized by my fellow lawyers by their electing me president of the Southwest Arkansas Bar Association and my desire to serve is shown by my terms as City Alderman, Director of the Prescott Chamber of Commerce and Chairman of the Nevada County Development Council.

I ask your serious consideration of my candidacy for Prosecuting Attorney, and solicit your vote and support. In the times before the Democratic Primary I will attempt to see each one of you and personally ask for your vote and support.

R.I.L. DENMAN, JR.

Newspapers More Widely Read Now

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — "More people are reading newspapers than ever before," says the president of the National Newspaper Promotion Association, Ed McClanahan. Newspaper revenues and circulations reached new highs last year, he said.

Says Faubus Should Take Good Job

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The chairman of Democrats for Arkansas suggested Wednesday that Gov. Orval Faubus accept one of the lucrative jobs the governor said he had been offered by private firms.

This would be better, said Dr. H. D. Luck of Arkadelphia, than violating "the constitutional restrictions on his salary."

He was referring to Faubus' statement that he would accept money raised by private citizens to help him pay for his new home at Huntsville. Faubus said that salaries for public officials were low in Arkansas and that he had received offers of well-paying jobs in private industry.

Luck said acceptance of the money "violates all principles of public ethical conduct and makes a mockery of the trust placed in him."

Luck said he spoke out because his organization wanted it known that someone besides the Republicans were disturbed about the matter.

The DFA is designed, its founders said, to make reforms in the Democratic Party in Arkansas.

Juniors Plan Horror-type Class Play

This year's Hope Junior play entitled "Willie's Weekend" is a switch from the horror-type stories of the past to just plain slap-stick comedy. It's going to be a scream!

The cast includes Margie Royston, Cindy Reese, Larry Don Wright, Ruth Ann Wylie, Beth Lawrence, Jerry Monroe, Mike Atkins, Bill Etter, Peggy Franks, Robyn Formby, Toni Leverett, Cecelia Delaney, Rob Bresler, and Dennis Turner.

Mrs. B. B. MacPherson and student director, Marlene Jones, will be responsible for play directing and prompting. The night performance of the play will be given at 8 p.m. on March 18 in the Senior High Auditorium. Don't miss it!

Klansman Charged in Slaying Dies

BESSEMER, Ala. (AP) — William Orville Eaton, 41, one of three Ku Klux Klansmen charged with the murder in the slaying of civil rights worker Viola Gregg Liuzzo, died of a heart attack today.

Eaton reportedly was stricken at his home early today and was dead on arrival at a hospital. Eaton and fellow Klansmen Eugene Thomas of Bessemer and Collie Leroy Wilkins Jr., of Fairfield, all of the Birmingham area, were convicted by a federal court in Montgomery last fall of conspiracy charges.

They were accused of conspiring to violate the constitutional rights of persons taking part in 1965 voter-rights demonstrations in the Selma-Montgomery area. They were sentenced to 10 years each. Their attorney said an appeal is planned.

The state indicted the three Klansmen for murder last year in the highway slaying of Mrs. Liuzzo. The wife of a Detroit labor leader was shot to death in Lowndes County the night of March 25, 1965, while ferrying participants in the Selma-to-Montgomery voter-rights march.

Cotton Must Meet Challenge

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Ernest W. Carpenter of Greenwood, S.C., told an industry group the cotton industry would "dry up and blow away if we do not meet the challenge from synthetic fiber industry of promotion and advertising."

No Blockade of N. Viet Nam Considered

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said today he does not believe President Johnson is giving consideration at this time to proposals to blockade North Viet Nam ports.

Mansfield said in an interview he thinks any action to mine the harbor of Haiphong, bomb the docks there or intercept supply ships would bring a confrontation with the Soviet Union that might drive the Soviets and the Chinese Communists closer together.

He gave his views as a feeling of uneasiness spread among some senators that Johnson may be considering fresh action to diminish military supplies reaching the Viet Cong in South Viet Nam.

Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in a separate interview that this feeling is based on a statement by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor that he is inclined to believe the time has been reached to mine the Haiphong harbor from the air to cut off shipping.

Taylor, a part-time presidential adviser, said he was giving only his personal opinion. But Mundt said he doubts the general would have made such a statement without at least tacit White House approval.

This and other Viet Nam war questions were likely to be raised in a Senate debate on a $415-million foreign aid authorization, including $275 million in emergency funds for South Viet Nam.

Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, turned over management of the measure to Sen. John J. Sparkman, D-Ala. Fulbright, a critic of Johnson's Viet Nam policies, said he lacked enthusiasm for the bill.

The committee, in recommending approval of the measure Wednesday, said it has doubts expenditures in South Viet Nam will provide a better life for the people there.

"Until the military situation improves," the committee said, "our aid program is likely to be little more than a holding operation keeping the wolves of rampant inflation away from the door and providing relief where needed."

Community Theater Picks Plays

Three one-act plays were chosen for presentation and the cast selected at the Hope Community Theater meeting Monday, March 7 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Collins. Two dramas, "The Shirkers" and "Heat Lightning" plus a farce, "The Three-Timer" will be presented at the Hope City Hall on April 1.

About 25 attended the meeting, and the hosts served coffee, cold drinks, cookies and assorted snacks.

More U.S. Grants for Arkansas

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Health, Education and Welfare has approved a $100,000 grant to Booneville, Ark., for construction of a $200,000 addition to the city hospital, Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., announced Wednesday.

The addition will have 20 beds, McClellan said.

McClellan also announced federal grants or loans to three other Arkansas cities: —De Queen, a $3,950 public works planning advance to finance planning of improved water facilities. —Mammoth Springs, a $1,500 planning advance for use in eliminating stream pollution and construction of a complete sanitary sewerage system project.

—Salem, an additional, public facility loan of $23,000 to assist in construction of new water and sewer facilities.

U.S., China Policy Gets Closer Look

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee takes a close look at U.S.-China policy today.

In its second public hearing on China, the committee was to hear from Prof. John F. Fairbank, director of Harvard's East Asian research center.

He is on record as a believer in military containment of China, but as favoring U.S. recognition of the Communist regime in Peking and its admittance into the United Nations.

A House Foreign Affairs subcommittee heard testimony Wednesday by John D. Rockefeller III on another phase of the Asian problem — exploding population.

Rockefeller, chairman of the Asia Society, said it is in the U.S. national interest to help developing countries with stabilization of population.

He cited U.N. estimates that the population of Asia, now numbering 1.6 billion, will reach the total of 4.4 billion by the year 2000.

State Second in Production of Broilers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas ranked second in the nation in broiler production in 1965, the federal Crop Reporting Service said today. The state produced 320 million broilers.

Gross income from the broiler production was $143 million, the service said, up 13 per cent or $17 million over the 1964 value.

The average price received per pound in 1965 was 14 cents, compared to 13.4 cents in 1964.

Georgia led the nation in broiler production, with 403 million.

Nationwide, average prices received ranged from the 14 cents in Arkansas to 17.6 cents in Pennsylvania.

Rain Clouds Moving Into Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rain clouds will begin moving into Arkansas tonight, bringing showers to most of the state by Friday, the U.S. Weather Bureau predicts.

Temperatures will remain mild, the bureau said, with maximum readings in the 60s and overnight low readings ranging from the mid 40s to mid 50s.

Maximum temperatures Wednesday ranged from 80 degrees at Fayetteville to 69 degrees at Texarkana.

Overnight low readings ranged from 33 degrees at El Dorado to 44 degrees at Fayetteville.

No rain was reported in the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m. at Fayetteville.

Five Deer Killed, Reward Offered

LAKE VILLAGE, Ark. (AP) — Mike Causey, superintendent at the Lake Chicot State Park, said Tuesday he is offering a $100 reward in an effort to catch whoever killed five deer in the park in recent months.

He said deer are regarded as one of the park's chief attractions. Almost 500,000 persons visited the park last year, Causey said.

Enrollment in College Up

ALANTA, Ga. (AP) — Ken Vickery, admissions director of Clemson University, says students entering U.S. colleges last year represented an 18 per cent increase over 1964 enrollment.

Vickery said the increased enrollment will make it more difficult in the future for students to enroll in colleges in states other than their own.

Many Warren Rulings Hit by Justice Black

By BARRY SCHWEID
WASHINGTON (AP) —The complexity of Hugo L. Black alongside a fiery belief that the Constitution means exactly what it says shines through the Supreme Court's affirmation of the 1965 Voting Rights Act.

Black, 80 nine days ago and an associate justice since 1937, won't sit still for any label, be it "liberal," "conservative" or "activist." And he won't sit still when he feels his fellow judges have marched off in the wrong direction, no matter how worthy the goal.

Black demonstrated this again Monday. Chief Justice Earl Warren got the unanimity he wanted for upholding two key sections of the voting law — the suspension of literacy tests where used to keep Negroes from the polls and the dispatch of federal examiners to those areas to register qualified Negroes.

But Black wouldn't go along with his eight colleagues in upholding a third key section of the law that would require new state voting laws to pass federal muster.

From his seat to Warren's right, the position traditionally reserved for the senior justice, Black lashed this ruling because it would treat state "like separate corporate units, with no power of their own."

Scanning the less than half-filled chamber, Black said, "I would have yielded a lot not to have had to file a written dissent in the case — but I felt compelled to do so."

As he has so many times in the past 28 years, often standing alone, Black made his case by looking smack at the Constitution. There he found nothing to support what Congress had done and the court approved.

"Nothing like that was ever contemplated with the Constitution or the 15th Amendment was adopted," he said.

In his written opinion, Black added: "I see no reason to read into the Constitution meanings it did not have when it was adopted and which have not been put into it since."

Two weeks ago, a bristling Black went to the Constitution and found nothing to prevent any state, including Louisiana, from making it unlawful to stage "sit-ins" in public libraries.

He found the "sacred" right to protest clearly protected by the First Amendment, but not "the right to use someone else's property even that owned by government and dedicated to other purposes, as a stage to express dissident ideas."

This reading led Black, a champion of human rights, to vote against reversal of "breach of peace" convictions of five Negro civil rights demonstrators.

Again Black was in the minority but again he raised his voice loud and clear.

In crackling anger he said, "I shall never agree to any opinion or holding that people may go anywhere and insist on staying in that place to exercise their right to talk."

Dissent can be a lonely pursuit and to a casual observer, at least, it would appear to be a trying position, especially for a man of 80. But almost daily, Hugo Lafayette Black gives evidence that his fighting spirit will not be curbed.

TUNA RING TOPS IN TASTE

TUNA RING AU GRATIN You'll find this tuna ring a delicious concoction. The roll is biscuit mix flavored with chopped onions. Inside there's a mixture of tuna, ketchup, and lemon juice. And to top it off, there's a warm sauce made from cheese soup, ketchup, and pickle relish.

- ### TUNA RING AU GRATIN
- 2 cans (7 ounces each) tuna, drained and flaked
  - 1 cup ketchup
  - 1 tablespoon lemon juice
  - 1/4 teaspoon salt
  - 1/4 cup chopped onion
  - 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
  - 1/2 cup milk
  - 2 cups prepared biscuit mix
  - 1 cup shredded pasteurized process American cheese
  - 1 can (11 ounce) Cheddar cheese soup
  - 3 tablespoons sweet pickle relish

Combine tuna, 1/2 cup ketchup, lemon juice, and salt; stir. Cook onion in butter or margarine until tender. Add onion and milk to biscuit mix; stir to make soft dough. Knead on lightly floured board 10 to 12 strokes. Roll into a 12-inch square. Top with tuna mixture; sprinkle with cheese. Roll up jelly-roll fashion and cut into 12 even slices. Arrange overlapping slices in a circle on a greased baking sheet. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) until done and lightly browned, about 20 minutes. Combine soup, remaining 1/2 cup ketchup, and pickle relish; mix and heat. Serve with hot tuna ring. Yield: 6 servings.

Rockette Boss Still Gets Kicks

By CHARLES PORTER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK — (NEA) — There were so many chorus lines kicking back in the Roarin' '20s that Russell Markert, who wanted to start a new one was told he'd be better off trying to peddle gin at a temperance meeting.

Nearly every speakeasy, and certainly every vaudeville show, featured a chorus line of some sort. Most of them emulated the dancing choruses of the famed Ziegfeld Follies.

But the watchword of the '20s, Charley, was "Anything goes." "Oh, you kid!" and all that. So Markert recruited some high-stepping lovelies and set to work despite the competition.

That was in 1926. Now, 40 years later, Markert is No. 1 in the chorus-line business. The other lines simply kicked themselves out or died with vaudeville.

His girls are the Rockettes of Radio City Music Hall.

"The key," said Markert, 66, "was to find a routine nobody else had. We became a 'precision line,' not just a better-sketched legs showing chorus line."

Markert "borrowed" the idea and a few techniques from the Tiller Girls, a precision line from London he saw perform in New York in the '20s. The Tiller Girls were a hit here, but apparently nobody thought to try the idea in this country.

Except Markert. He formed the group in St. Louis, calling his girls the Missouri Rockettes. They toured the country and their fame landed them in New York's Roxy Theater, where they became known as the Roxyettes.

Then, in 1932, Markert moved the line to Radio City and changed the name to Rockettes. They've been there ever since.

Today, there is a pride that goes with a place in the Rockettes' line that probably is envied in every dance studio in the country.

Said Rockette Paulette Harris of Worthington, Ky., "You're not just a face in the crowd as a Rockette. You're a principal performer in the best dance line in existence."

"The Rockettes are a national institution," said Jane Simpson of Bangor, Maine. "I heard about them when I was taking dancing lessons as a little girl."

Darlene Whalley of Cumberland, Md., and seven-year Rockette Louise Thompson, Long Beach, Calif., said they'd rather be Rockettes than dance in a big Broadway show.

"On Broadway, you dance one routine over and over and that's it," Miss Thompson said. "We change our routines every two weeks."

"We're also better dancers because of this," she said. "With our experience we could probably get dancing jobs anywhere."

That may be overdoing it, said one of Markert's assistants. "But the line is good. It would have to be to stay in business 40 years," he said.

PEP TALK: Russell Markert, director and originator of the dancing Rockettes, gives last minute instructions to Louise Thompson (seated), Jane Simpson, Darlene Whalley and Paulette Harris (left to right).

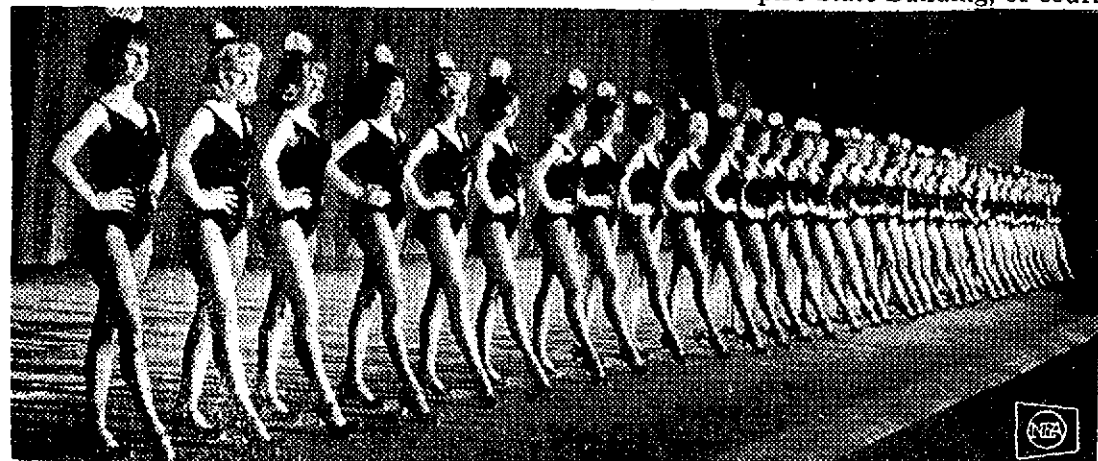

There are 36 girls in the line. Extras rotate into the show to give each girl a full week off every month. The average age of the line is 21; the average length of each girl's stay with the show is three years. When they leave, it's usually because of something serious, like marriage.

Markert arranges the line routines and directs the rehearsals with help from assistants. The girls swear by him.

"He's the greatest," Miss Harris said. "He's tough, but you learn from him. Mr. Markert demonstrates all our routines and he still kicks higher than most of us."

The show draws best at Easter, Christmas and during the summer vacation period. Tourists make a look at the Rockettes a "must."

That's after they see the Statue of Liberty and the Empire State Building, of course.

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Dum-de-dum-dum is back. If you don't know what dum-de-dum-dum is, you must be terribly young. That was the opening theme of "Dragnet," which was one of television's most notable series in the years from 1952 to 1959.

The saga of Los Angeles police operations made a millionaire of Jack Webb, who produced, directed and starred as Sgt. Joe Friday. Webb moved on to other enterprises including television series and most recently, a post as head of Warner Bros. Television.

He is now in the midst of filming "Dragnet 1966," an up-to-date, two-hour version of the show for broadcast by NBC. I dropped out to see the filming and it appeared that time had stood still for Joe Friday. He has the same stolid face, the same emotionless voice, and he's still a sergeant.

"But I'm exactly 10 pounds heavier than when I finished the series," confessed Webb. The poundage no doubt came from his tour of executive duty, a role in which he considered himself miscast.

"A lot of my friends were upset when I was fired from Warners — much more upset than I was," said Webb, who enjoyed the balm of $3,000 weekly severance pay for a couple of years.

"I wasn't happy behind a desk. I'm much more in my element out here on the floor with the others."

Sgt. Friday has a new sidekick in the two-hour drama, which comprises three actual cases from Los Angeles police department films. The fresh partner is veteran character comedian Harry Morgan. He replaces Ben Alexander, the longtime Frank Smith of "Dragnet."

"We wanted Ben back," explained Webb, "but he had already signed for a pilot film at Fox. They wouldn't let him loose for ours."

"Dragnet 1966" is another of a series of feature-length films made especially for television, with the added potential of a release in theaters overseas. It is a forerunner of the operation which may need to face when they run out of old movies.

The show has another purpose: as a pilot for the return of the half-hour "Dragnet" to television.

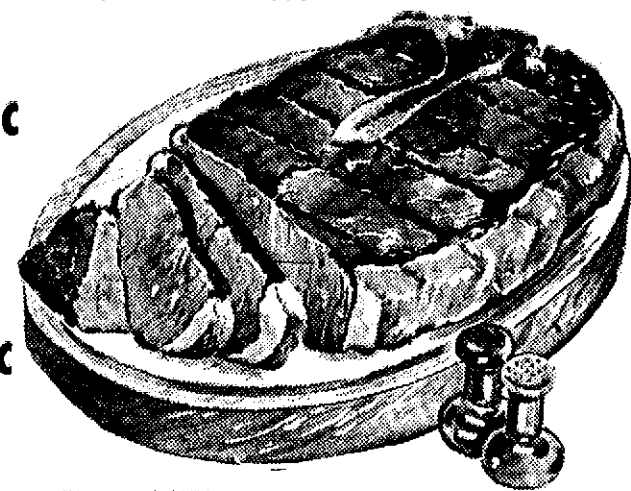

Home is more than a sleep-stop.

DEAR POLLY—Snap up the inside legs of a baby's pajamas before trying to put them on an active baby. Just pull the pajamas on and snap up the front. This saves a frustrating few minutes of trying to hold baby still enough to catch the snaps together.—MRS. J. M.

DEAR POLLY—To clean any starch off my steam iron, I simply heat until the iron is JUST WARM and the starch wipes right off with a damp cloth. I had tried cleaners when the iron was cold. When it was hot the starch just baked on more. Finally I lost my patience when ironing some white shirts, went into the living room in disgust and sat down. The iron was unplugged. When I went back to try just once more it had cooled to JUST WARM and I wiped it off clean as a whistle.—MARY

GIRLS—Often rubbing a slightly warm iron on waxed paper will remove scorched starch.—POLLY

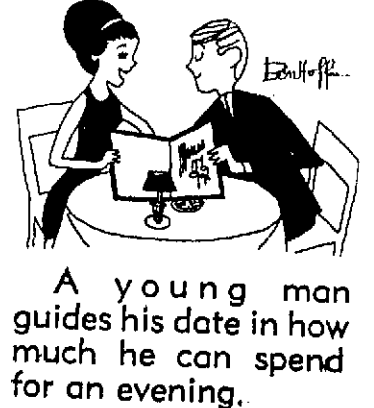

DEAR POLLY—Recently I did not have an appropriate card to put on the gift I was taking to a baby shower. I made my own by cutting an angel head from a Christmas card and wrapping around it a bit of outing flannel so it looked like a baby wrapped in a blanket. I tacked this to a corner of a plain white folding card made out of the plain white part of the Christmas card. I signed my name inside. This card attracted a lot of attention. I also tucked one of these "babies" in a letter to my little granddaughter and she loved it.—MRS. G. M.

DEAR POLLY—I took a pair of old, wool knee-length socks, cut off the worn feet and sewed the legs to the ends of a pair of my child's mittens. These long mittens provide extra warmth as the long cuffs come up over the coat sleeves and keep the snow from getting inside the sleeves and mittens when the child is playing outside.—MRS. M. K.

DEAR POLLY—Cleaning sand and dirt out of the long toes of a child's cowboy boots can be a real problem. I use a discarded baby bottle brush. I bend the wire handle of the brush, reach in and get them clean.—MARGARET

DEAR POLLY—When I am putting a V-neck in a dress or blouse that I am making I have often had the point of the V pull out and ravel. This often happened after a garment was laundered. Now I cut a piece of iron-on mending tape about one-inch-square and press it on the wrong side of the point of the V before the facing is stitched on. When the seam is cut off and clipped at the point a nice strong V is there. This extra firmness also gives a more professional look to the V.—MRS. J. L. S.

Three Coifs That Are Flattering

by Alicia Hart
Beauty Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Like the proverbial bending of the twig, the way a woman's hair is cut usually determines the way it will go.

Few women can gracefully carry off the weeping willow or the sheep dog coifs still much in vogue among certain youth groups. Instead, a flattering haircut and set should be the goal of girls in their early 20s to their 80s.

A New York hairstylist has turned the former main ballroom of a hotel into a beauty salon to practice what she preaches. Simply called Ila, this special hairstylist says the woman who works for femininity (once we were born with this) stands out in the crowd.

Ila says one step to achieving this is a well-cut hairstyle. She prefers the outer layers of hair left long enough for brushing smoothly, without teasing. This gives any hairstyle a soft, natural look which compliments any woman. Properly shaped, any hairdo can be brushed back, down or to one side for the most flattering style.

Ila discusses three hairdos for this spring that keep pace with the fashion trends. She calls them the Siren, L'Allure, and The Flirt.

The Siren takes its cue from the movie queens of the 1930s. The feeling is one of hair flowing in unbroken curves to the shoulder. There is no part to break the feeling. Ila sets The Siren with large, large rollers all the way back and down the sides. Large pin curls at the very bottom complete the setting. When dry, The Siren is brushed into place.

The hair stylist describes L'Allure as "essentially feminine for young and mature women." It is a graceful back-sweep from arched bangs with sort of a free swirl of a seashell. The hair is brushed back with a postiche added

Two of three flattering hairstyles for spring show how adaptable they are to women of varying ages. Exaggerated, teased hair is out for the truly chic, according to stylist Ila in New York. Have hair cut so it falls naturally and can be set at home. The Siren hairdo (left) reflects the 1930s trend with its unbroken curves to the shoulder. It is set on large, large rollers down the back and on both sides with large pin curls at the very bottom. L'Allure (right) is a back sweep with bangs. If hair is short, use a postiche at the back. For longer hair, brush up in back and fold over.

If the hair is cut short. With long hair, push up your own hair in back and fold over.

A definite change of mood comes with The Flirt. Here the hair is pulled back to one side. From a half-hidden part on the same side, brush the hair in an arch forward from the crown. This ends with a saucy curve at the brows. The other side follows the same arch-like feeling, tapering from a shorter front to mid-neck length at the back. Brush to a subtle guiche-like curl on the ear. Ila prefers to do this without teasing and accomplishes it by using two or three big rollers on top. Lift the hair with the end of a rat-tail comb or large hairpin. The back for this style should be cut fairly close.

Old World Cherry Salad Treat

by Gaynor Maddox
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

We know an excellent cook who used to live in Germany. She still remembers the cold cherry soup of her childhood, and the many meat sauces, desserts, relishes and salads, all made with bright cherries. Now living in the State of Washington, she continues to enjoy cherries—dark Bings and Lamberts, and rosy, light Queen Annes—in old world recipes she continues to cherish.

- GABRIELLE'S CHERRY SALAD
(Serves 8)
- 1 (1 lb.) can pitted dark sweet cherries
  - 1 (1 lb.) can pitted light sweet cherries
  - 1 large grapefruit
  - 2 (3 oz.) packages cherry-flavored gelatin
  - 2 cups hot apple juice
  - 1/2 teaspoon ground ginger
  - Dash salt
- Drain cherries, reserving syrup. Peel and section grapefruit, working over bowl to reserve juice. Combine cherry and grapefruit juices to measure 1 1/2 cups liquid. Dissolve gelatin in hot apple juice. Add ginger and salt, stir to blend. Stir in fruit juices and chill until slightly thickened. Set aside a few cherries for garnish. Add remaining fruit to thickened gelatin. Pour into 2-quart mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on plate and garnish with dressing, cherries and mint leaves. As a dessert, serve either plain or with a soft custard sauce.

College Costs Up Loan Sources

Parents with college-age youths probably are eyeing their bank balances, wondering how they will meet the estimated $10,000 to $18,000 needed for four years of higher education.

Most, even when family budgets are rearranged, need an outside money source. This is why borrowing is on the increase to help finance higher education.

There is a slight ray of sunshine. This semester hard-pressed parents received some relief from the new $4.7 billion Higher Education Act which became law in November, 1965. It provides for some federally guaranteed college loans and for federal scholarships.

The local bank probably is a good source of explanation on a variety of loans. Here are a few to ask about:

United Student Aid Funds—USAF is a nonprofit organization which guarantees loans to students recommended by both college and bank. About 7,000 banks now participate in the plan. Under the new legislation, undergraduates may borrow up to $1,000 per year; graduate students $1,500, to a maximum aggregate of $7,500. A student must begin to repay the amount up to 10 months after completing his studies. He may take up to 15 years from the original date of the loan to repay at a maximum interest rate of 6 per cent a year, based on a declining balance. The loan is insured.

State Guaranty Corporations—Massachusetts first established a state-wide corporation to guarantee college loans in 1956. Now 20 states have or are in the process of setting up similar plans for low-cost, long-term insured loans made through individual banks. Federal terms apply.

Federally guaranteed loans—Where private or state programs for insured loans do not exist, the Office of Education is authorized to set up its own program through the banks. On all federally insured loans, there is special provision for students whose parents have a family income of less than $15,000 after taxes. For such a student, the government pays all the interest on his loan while he is still in school and 3 per cent of the interest when he starts repaying the loan after leaving school.

Bank Loan Plans—Most students will need more than $1,000 a year to get through college. For their parents a variety of loan plans is available at most full-service commercial banks. Many offer preferred interest rates on loans for education. Banks also have stretched repayment years to as many as double the number of years' study.

Combination saving and borrowing plan—The ideal way to finance a college education is to save ahead of time. A relatively new bank plan combines the bank's savings and lending functions into one activity. Part of the money for college is saved by the future student's parents part of it is later loaned by the bank.

For example, parents decide when their child enters high school that they will need $10,000 for his college education. They begin to make monthly payments into a special education fund. The bank pays the usual interest on these savings funds. When the student is ready to enter college, the bank discontinues interest payments and begins to make tuition payments, as scheduled, to the college. Once the accumulated savings have been spent, the bank then starts to use its own funds in making tuition payments. Interest is then paid by the borrower but only on the bank's funds actually in use. The borrower continues to make payments to the bank through the terms of college and up to two years thereafter. This way the cost of a college education is spread over the year period.

PAINT UP: Sprucing up basement, garage or patio floors gets easier every day. New vinyl epoxy latex floor paint may be rolled onto flooring surface with regular paint roller. Quick drying, it leaves a low luster sheen and may be applied to any common flooring, including concrete, cement, brick, stone and other masonry, wood and primed metal. According to the manufacturer, moisture will not cause it to blister or peel.
